Cruise ship season is upon us. Fred will once again open the church and welcome our visitors, but his time downtown is limited. If you have a few minutes during our busy cruise ship days, please come down and open the church and make some new friends.

The Day of Pentecost is coming up on May 24. This is one of three great Holy Days of the church year and it represents the coming of the Holy Spirit. The color of the day is Red which represents the tongues of flames which came upon the followers of Jesus with the arrival of the Holy Spirit. The front doors of St. John's Church are painted red in recognition of the Holy Spirit. This day is also one of the days specially appropriate for baptisms.
