Before we get to the somber, penitential season of Lent, we have one last feast day of Shrove Tuesday. It has been a 600 year tradition to have a pancake dinner before we enter into Lent on Ash Wednesday. The Vestry will provide the pancakes and all the trimmings. While you are at the church you could step upstairs for a couple minutes and do your shriving.

+++

We have several opportunities to participate in Ash Wednesday with our Christian friends. Check out the schedule and attend one.

+++

We are getting ready for our Lenten soup supper and study each Wednesday during that special season. The last two years we have looked at the Gospels of Mark and Luke as they were predominate during the year on our lectionary schedule. We could continue with that format with either the Gospels of Matthew or of John, or we could change the format and discuss the books of C.S. Lewis. If you have any thoughts about these alternatives, please pass them on to Alan and we will begin preparation.
